WRITING

I'd like to select to theme two. I agree with that sentence. I think all of people on the earth are never satisfied with what they have; it's nature of human.

Every people wants more what they have. I think it's because when you have all what you want, you starting thinks this is not enough. Homeless people want a home, but after receiving a house, they want car and even more. The rich people want to get even more rich. But for what? I think this is human nature and there is no way to resist it. I have a home, ^{mom} and dad, sister, but I also want many more things in this world. f

I think what people will never satisfied with ~~what~~ what they have because it's nature. Therefore there is a job, expensive things and even much more. On my point not all people accept this, but it's okay.
